Dear Congresswoman Lofgren:

Thank you for your Feb. 6, 2025, letter inquiring about the Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE), an element of the Executive Office of the President, and its access to NASA information technology (IT) resources.

I have confirmed with NASA's Office of the Chief Information Officer and the Office of Protective Services that DOGE has identified an individual who will be employed by NASA. As such, he will have all necessary access to NASA owned or managed resources as required for his duties, in compliance with all laws and regulations regarding the protection of IT resources and classified information. NASA also complies with all applicable Executive Orders and associated supplemental guidance.

Sincerely,
